RESPONSE TO COMMUNICATION AND NOTIFICATION OF ABANDONMENT

Honorable Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

This is in response to a Communication and Notification of Abandonment mailed August 12, 2002.

The Communication indicates that the present application is abandoned for failure to complete the requirements of 35 USC 371(c) for entry into the National Stage in the United States as indicated in a Notification of Missing Requirements allegedly mailed on October 1, 2001.

In response, and as noted in the Requests for Status mentioned in the Communication filed February 1, 2002 (mailed January 8, 2002 as evidenced by certificate of mailing) and filed April 11, 2002 (mailed April 1, 2002 as evidenced by certificate of mailing), Applicant had not received any communication from the United States Patent and Trademark Office other than a postcard receipt indicating receipt in the receiving office on August 1, 2001 (incorrectly specified in the Requests for Status due to typographical error as August 10, 2001). Applicant notes that in the Communication it is alleged that the Notification of Missing Requirements was mailed on October 1, 2001. Assuming this to be true, had such notification been mailed and received the due date to reply to the Notification would have been docketed by the attorneys of record, two months after the alleged mailing date, i.e., December 1, 2001. In this connection, submitted herewith is a copy of a portion of a docket report showing the due date December 1, 2001 including pages 1 and 13 of a 32 page report. Page 1 is provided to show the report is for the due date of December 1, 2001. Page 13 is provided because the report is sorted by client and matter and, for this filing, for client matter number 004890.P001, the docket entry would have appeared on page 13 where indicated had the notification been received. Serial numbers have been blocked out due to confidentiality.

Accordingly, this is to request that the Notification of Missing Requirements under 35 USC 371 be mailed to the attorneys of record and assigned a new mailing date and mailed so as to provide Applicant with a two month period of time from such mailing date within which to reply.

Applicant notes that it is not in a position to file a petition to revive since Applicant cannot provide the information requested in the Notification of Missing Requirements which, as noted above, has not been received.

Respectfully submitted,
